MOTION FOR ADMISSION PRO HAC VICE

COMES NOW, Gene T. Moore, the counsel of record for Plaintiff Arlis M. Elmore, who is the Plaintiff in a lawsuit filed in the Circuit Court of Tuscaloosa County, Alabama in which Delphi Corporation is a named Defendant, and moves this Honorable Court to grant this Motion for Admission Pro Hac Vice. In support thereof, Gene T. Moore would show unto this Honorable Court the following, to wit:

1. The Movant has met all the requirements for admission to practice in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York.
2. A Pro Hac Vice Application for Admission has been submitted unto this Court.
3. Along with the above-referenced application, the Movant has submitted unto this Court a Certificate of Good Standing from the Alabama State Bar.
4. Additionally, the required twenty-five dollar fee for admission has been submitted.
5. This Motion, in-and-of itself, fulfills the final requirement for admission to practice within the confines of this Court.

WHEREFORE, premises considered, the Movant, Gene T. Moore, moves this Honorable Court to grant this Motion for Admission Pro Hac Vice.
